CLEARING THE WATERS: EFFECTIVE SCIENCE AND COMMUNICATION

FEBRUARY 28 &amp; MARCH 1, 2019

LAKE LAWN RESORT

DELAVAN, WISCONSIN

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS AND REGISTRATION INFORMATION

You are invited to attend the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Section of the American Water Resources Association (AWRA). The meeting will be held at the Lake Lawn Resort, Delavan, Wis., on February 28 & March 1, 2019. Our theme this year is "Clearing the Waters: Effective Science and Communication."

We are planning plenary, oral, poster and lightning sessions that will address technical and policy issues of surface water and groundwater in Wisconsin. The complete program and registration materials will be available at wisconsinawra.org/2019meeting.html. We look forward to seeing you!

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Contributed Sessions

Breakout sessions for the 2019 meeting will include topics relating to our conference theme of science communication as well as hydrogeology and modeling, wetlands, monitoring, environmental modeling, water quality, surface water hydrology and climate change, and urban hydrology.

The meeting will also include a luncheon business meeting for the Wisconsin Section of AWRA, an evening banquet, a dinner speaker and a poster session during a dessert buffet.

Officer Elections

Section elections for President Elect, Vice President, Secretary and Director-at-Large will be held at the luncheon business meeting. Biographies of each candidate will be printed in the program.

Looking for Student Assistants

Six students are needed to run the projectors and do other tasks at the annual meeting. If you are interested, please ask your professor to send a short letter of recommendation to Andy Leaf at aleaf@usgs.gov by Feb. 14. Student assistants will need to arrive at the meeting location by 10 a.m. on Thursday, February 28, 2019, and are required to attend and assist with both days of the conference. Registration fees will be waived for students who are selected.

For a complete program schedule and abstracts, please visit the AWRA Wisconsin Section website: wisconsinawra.org/2019meeting.html.

Professional Development Hour certificates will be available for Wisconsin licensed Professional Engineers. If you will need a certificate, please indicate this when you register.

LODGING

The meeting will be held at the Lake Lawn Resort, Delavan, Wis. Rooms at the hotel can be reserved until Feb. 20, 2019, at the AWRA conference rate of $82 for a single room and $92 for a double room. A limited number of group rooms are available upon request. You must indicate that you are attending the American Water Resources Association meeting to receive this rate—reference room block "AWRA WI." Please call the hotel directly at 800-338-5253 to make your room reservation. Rooms are tax exempt with proper identification.

STUDENT CAREER WORKSHOP

Students are invited to participate in a career workshop on Friday, March 1, from 12–2 p.m. The workshop will include discussion of job opportunities by a panel representing a range of career choices for water resources professionals. The workshop is free and lunch will be provided. Students can sign up during meeting registration.
